Another drabble for my "Bunny" series!

James laid down onto the couch, planning to take a nap without getting disturbed. He closed his eyes after he had found the best sleeping position.

All of a sudden he had the feeling of being watched.

He was right.

The black-furred bunny named Kirk Bunny sat on the floor, longingly staring at James.

"Go away!" he growled.

The bunny urgently whimpered, and James groaned.

"Get the fuck up," he sighed. "But if you'll shit on me you are doomed."

An hour later Kirk stood at the door, smiling.

James snored, the bunny snuggled against his chest.

It snored, too!
